University of Copenhagen and all of its six faculties have since 2013 offered Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs). It is our belief that the new technologies and rapid innovation within online learning will ultimately lead to better education – not just for the University's many thousands of MOOC learners, but also for the students enrolled at the University of Copenhagen.

Top 10 countries

1. USA 19.4%
2. India 5.8%
3. Brazil 3.9%
4. Mexico 4.3%
5. Denmark 2.9%
6. Canada 2.8%
7. Germany 2.7%
8. Russia 2.6%
9. Spain 2.5%
10. China 2.4%

The learners

- 48% between 25-34 years old
- 43% students
- 46% full-time job
- 79% longer education
- 12% learners who completed the course
- 16.9% learners who accessed more than 50% of the course content
- 4.6 average rating

Enrolled learners on coursera.org/ucph

- 652,397 enrolled learners
- 642,397 courses
- 36,355 course completers
- 366,854 active learners
- 6,273 paid for certificate
- 145 contributors

MOOC status, February 2019

- September 2013
- October 2015
- February 2019

Session-based platform

On-demand platform

Coursera avg. 4.66